March 11, 2020

Dear Catholic School Families,

With the presence of the COVID 19 virus in our state and local Nashville region, I reach out to inform you of directions issued to all our diocesan Catholic schools, and particularly those in the Nashville area. The health of our students and school communities remains our top priority, as such, prudent measures must be taken to address the challenges this virus presents.

Please know the Catholic Schools Office and fellow diocesan and parish staff continue to monitor information and guidance delivered by federal, state, and local authorities and public health experts. On February 27, 2020, all Catholic schools were directed to develop contingency plans should the school have to close for an extended period. Administrators were also instructed to inform parents that local health conditions were being monitored.

Currently the number of cases in Middle Tennessee have reached a level where new precautionary measures need to be taken on a larger scale. After consult and approval from Bishop Spalding, the Catholic Schools Office now directs our diocesan Catholic schools to the following:

- Schools will close all or part of the school day on Friday, March 13, 2020. Administrators will determine whether a whole or half day is needed and communicate that to his/her school community. This time is essential for teachers to properly collaborate and establish lessons that can be easily distributed and managed at home or online.
- Students will be directed to take the necessary tools and resources home with them before dismissing for spring break.
- Schools will have the school deep-cleaned using products targeting COVID 19, MRSA, flu and common cold viruses over spring break as a precautionary measure.

Finally, while events such as these can incite discord in communities, let us as people of Faith, place our trust in God and pray for the intercessions of our Blessed Mother Mary, that all communities are restored to good health and that those who suffer any illness are granted comfort. Let us also continue to hold the recently deceased and those affected by the tornadoes in our prayers, that all may know the comforting love of our Heavenly Father.

Thank you for your support of our Catholic schools. Be assured of my prayers for all of you.

In Christ,

Rebecca Hammel
Superintendent of Schools
